Art Unit: 1652

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claim 1-26, 29 and 30-31, drawn to polypeptide having vWF protease activity and its composition, classified in class 435, subclass 219.
- II. Claim 32-33, drawn to DNA, host cell and recombinant method of production of the polypeptide of Group I, classified in class 536, subclass 23.2.
- III. Claim 27, drawn to the use of the polypeptide for the development of antibodies, classified in class 424, subclass 130.1.
- IV. Claim 28, drawn to a method of purifying von Willebrand factor, classified in class, 530, subclass 412.
- V. Claim 34 and 35 drawn to a use of polypeptide of Group I for the production of the preparation for the prophylaxis or therapy; the method is indefinite, classification unknown.

The inventions are different for the following reasons.

Inventions I-II are different chemical entities that have different biological functions, require different search in the patent and non-patent literature, have different classification and have acquired different status in the art.

Inventions I and III-V are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case polypeptide of

Group I can be used in any of the three methods of its use claimed in Group III-V. The methods are not disclosed as capable together. In addition, the polypeptide of Group I may be used in another process that is not claimed, i.e. for a method of screening for an inhibitor.

Inventions II and III-V are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions, the DNA and three methods of use the polypeptide encoded by said DNA are not disclosed as capable of use together.

Inventions III-V are directed to three different methods of use of said polypeptide. The inventions are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the three methods of Groups III-V are not disclosed as capable of use together.

Inventions I-V are distinct for the reasons given above, have acquired a separate status in the art, and require different searches in the patent and non-patent literature. Because of their recognized divergent subject matter, and different classification, necessity of restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Art Unit: 1652

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
